VOL. VII. NO. 199. SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 3, 1912. 50 CENTS PER MONTH

REBELS FIRE ON TROOPS OF U. S.

Fifty Shots Exchanged Across Border, Mexicans Firing
the First Shots

SMUGGLING BELIEVED DONE AS FIRING WENT ON

Senate Passes Appropriation of $100,000 Measure in Aid of American Refugees

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 3.—More than fifty shots were exchanged across the border last night and early today between United States soldiers and Mexican rebels. The homes of four Americans in East El Paso were riddled with bullets, but none of the American troops were injured. It is not known whether or not any of the rebels were hurt.

The exchange of shots started late last night when the rebels fired on American troops near the El Paso foundry. The Americans immediately replied without making any investigation, firing in the direction from which the shots came. Investigation is being made by Colonel Steever, commanding the American troops here, who believes the rebels started the firing to divert attention from a smuggling expedition.

SENATE APPROPRIATES $100,000 TO AID REFUGEES
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The destitution of American refugees from Mexico, now quartered at El Paso, resulted in the adoption by the Senate yesterday of a resolution authorizing the War Department to spend $100,000 in transporting them to such points in the United States as they wish to reach.

The measure presented by Bailey was passed. It will need the approval of the House and the President before the appropriation becomes available.

Members of the Senate received during the afternoon a request from El Paso newspapers to come to that city August 13 and confer regarding "affairs in Mexico and plan to meet the impending crisis."

The special investigating committee headed by Senator William Alden Smith, which is to investigate the charges that Americans here have been inciting and sustaining the insurrection in Mexico and Cuba, particularly, was appealed to. Smith notified El Paso that his committee soon would visit that city, but would not take part in the August conference.

During the debate on the relief measure Senator Bailey said he was not for the proposed investigation by a special Senate committee, but would tell the Senate not only of the brutalities suffered by American refugees, but something of the experience of citizens of Texas at the hands of the United States army.

"There is no doubt in my mind," he added, "that there has been a deliberate, sedate intent on the part of certain persons to force intervention on the part of the United States."

Senator Fall of New Mexico has been added to the special investigation committee.

Governor Wilson today announced here that he would not stump the country generally. He said: "I am definitely determined not to stump the country generally during the coming campaign. I expect to make a few speeches at points where the campaign committee desires, and assume that the speaking campaign will begin on Sept. 1."

Wilson said he probably would not speak on the Pacific coast. When asked: "Will you make such speeches as the committee decide are best?" he smiled, replying: "Yes, if I agree with them."

At 12:30 this afternoon no trace of the missing men had been found, although a large party has been searching for two days.

'Gyp, the Blood' and 'Leftie Louie' Offer to Surrender if Third Degree is Cut Out

U. S. MAY HAVE CASE FROM WHITE SLAVE FEATURE

Gangsters Attempt Life of a Woman Who Will Testify Along This Line of Case

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Overtures for the surrender of Harry Harrowitz, known to the gambling gangsters as "Gyp the Blood" and "Leftie Louie" Rosenberg, wanted here for alleged complicity in the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, were made here today to District Attorney Whitman through Attorney Lewis Siegel, representing the accused men. Whitman was told that the two alleged gangsters are willing to surrender if they can be granted immunity from the "third degree."

CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 3.—Suspected of being "Leftie Louie" Rosenberg, wanted in New York for alleged complicity in the Rosenthal murder, a man giving his name as "Jack" Morton was arrested here today. The suspect declared he is an ironworker and was merely seeking employment when arrested.

WHITE SLAVE PHASE OF CASE MAY PUT IN THE GOVERNMENT'S HANDS
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The New York police investigation may pass into the hands of the federal authorities. An unexpected turn in the Rosenthal case has linked the murder inquest with serious charges made by influential New England reformers that young girls have been lured to the great city from country places in Massachusetts and other states and victimized by New York cadets. District Attorney Whitman's visit to Boston yesterday is said to have been in connection with this phase of the affair.

Tried to Kill Woman
Mrs. Marie Mason Bassi, the well-known reformer who assisted in the investigation into the white slave traffic before a federal grand jury three years ago, arrived in New York in answer to a subpoena issued by the judge in the Rosenthal case. Before she was three hours in the city she says an attempt was made upon her life.

Detectives have been detailed to protect her from the gangsters and decoys.

George Considine, owner of the Metropole Hotel before which Rosenthal was shot, announced that he intended to sue "Bridgie" Webber, one of the suspects for $100,000 damages, claiming that the hotel is damaged to that extent.

METAL REVISION BILL ADOPTED

Progressives and Democrats Allied. Taft Said to be Ready With Veto

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Allying their forces in the senate today, the Progressives and Democrats forced the adoption of the House metal revision bill. PROGRESSIVES LAUNCH PARTY IN ILLINOIS

State Convention Opened Today—Problem Over Putting Up State Ticket

GOV. DENEEN MAY BE OPPOSED BY FRANK H. FUNK

Gov. Johnson to Make Address; Editors to Meet Sunday; Women Delegates

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—With Charles Merriam acting as temporary chairman, the "Bull Moose" party was formally launched in Illinois today with the opening at 11 o'clock of the Progressive State convention.

The main question before the delegates was the advisability of placing a third party ticket in the field to oppose Governor Deneen who was renominated on the regular Republican ticket.

Although Governor Deneen practically favors the candidacy of Colonel Roosevelt, he refuses to leave the Republican party. In many states Roosevelt leaders are opposed to Governor Deneen's candidacy. Chief of these is Medill McCormick, who opened the fight to put a third party ticket in the field. He favors the nomination of State Senator Frank H. Funk of Bloomington, one of the richest men in the state, for governor.

Governor Johnson of California is expected to address the convention some time during today.

Women to Be Delegates
BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 3.—The Progressive state convention here today chose Mrs. Mary Drier, prominent in the Women Workers' Welfare organization here as one of the delegates to the Chicago convention. Miss Frances Keller of Albany, N. Y., was chosen as alternate at large.

PROGRESSIVE EDITORS' MEET. ING PUT OFF TO SUNDAY
CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—The meeting of the Progressive editors of the country scheduled for today, was postponed at the last moment to Sunday.

Gov. Johnson Is Popular
CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—The speech by Governor Johnson of California at the state Progressive convention tomorrow is awaited with the keenest interest. The Californian's fame in Chicago, and apparently throughout the country, judges from the eagerness of the delegates from every section to hear him, is second only to that of Colonel Roosevelt.

Governor Johnson's speech is expected to harmonize all factional differences regarding the state ticket. Senator Joseph M. Dixon and Governor Pinchot will also speak.

A sweeping victory for the Progressive program—a full state ticket—is confidently expected.

Beveridge Confident
Former Senator Beveridge of Indiana stated that the state convention at Indianapolis Thursday was the most spirited gathering held in Indiana in years. Mr. Beveridge added that a thousand Indiana Republicans attended the convention, and the delegates were made up of many of the best-known bankers and business men of the state, and Mr. Beveridge believes he is to be elected governor.

Michigan Favors Roosevelt
H. M. Wallace, noted Progressive national committeeman from Michigan, arrived today.

Mr. Wallace has been energetic in trying to determine the sentiments of the old-time Republicans in the rural parts of his home state. Actual polls were taken in three counties of Michigan to learn how men who had been Republicans, at least up to the day of Mr. Taft's nomination stand today.

The result, Mr. Wallace reports, showed that in these three counties nine out of ten men are in favor of the nomination and election of Theodore Roosevelt.

Many delegates arrived today. Some of them—most of them perhaps—never saw a national convention before and it is said a majority of them never attended anything larger than a county convention.

PURE FOOD DECISIONS BY BOARD OF REFEREES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—There is no appeal in pure food matters from a decision of the referee board of the Department of Agriculture to what is known as the "three secretaries board," composed of the secretaries of the Treasury, Commerce and Labor and Agriculture, according to an opinion rendered by Attorney General Wickersham. This entirely changes the practice of the past when prosecutors or manufacturers of foods or drugs declared deleterious by the referee board have appealed to the three secretaries.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Plans to organize the laborers of the steel industry have been launched by the American Federation of Labor. A circular printed in many languages and signed by Gompers and Morrison has been sent broadcast.

STURGES REFUSES TO RESIGN AND LAWYERS POINT LEGAL WAY OUT

Long Talk Brings No Action on Call For Bids, Duggan Resolution or Advisory Committee's Position.

For two hours and a half last night the members of the board of education, W. L. Duggan, Mrs. W. M. Smart, H. G. Dean, Mrs. E. B. Norman and J. M. Cain, and two members of the advisory committee, W. A. Zimmerman and J. N. Anderson, wrestled with various phases of the investigation that resulted Tuesday evening last in passing of a motion asking A. B. Sturges to resign as architect of the polytechnic high school. There were reams of individual opinion expressed, but no vote was taken on any of the proposals or suggestions.

Sturges absolutely refused to resign. He brought affidavits from three members of his family to show that he did not make any statement to a Blair detective to the effect that he had to take out a $5000 life insurance policy from President Duggan in order to do business with "these people." Attorneys R. V. Williams and W. F. Heathman advised the board that the board had no legal contract of any kind with Sturges, that the legal thing to do is to call for bids for plans and specifications, thus setting aside all past dealings with Sturges. Sturges got his employment without bids, which are necessary under the law.

Both members of the advisory committee came out in strong, emphatic statements to the effect that there is no just, deserved criticism to be offered Duggan for securing a life insurance order from Sturges. There was a tilt over the rights of the advisory committee, and both Anderson and Zimmerman insisted that they be asked either to stay or go, that they have the confidence of the board or be told to quit. No answer was given them. These two men stated that they thought four members of the school board ought to pass a resolution of confidence in Duggan, expressing the belief that he was fully justified in insuring Sturges' life. No action was taken on that.

Sturges' Statement

Architect Sturges opened up the discussion. He said: "I wish to state that I absolutely refuse to resign. I have done nothing to resign for. I absolutely deny saying or doing anything that would reflect upon the character or integrity of any member of this board. Last Friday night I was under a nervous strain, and went to pieces, and apologize for things I said. Tonight I present three affidavits, and further a statement of the business relations between Mr. Kennedy and myself, if you want that statement."

Duggan: "I don't think your business relations with Kennedy has any place before this board, and ought never have been dragged in here."

Zimmerman: "I don't either."

Sturges called in two young men who work in his office, Head and Thomas by names. These young men were present Tuesday evening before they had seen Sturges, and made statements. Last night Duggan asked each of the young men if they had ever heard Sturges say anything reflecting on any member of the board, or if he had said he had to take out life insurance in order to secure any advantage to himself other than the protection of his family, and both young men answered no.

The three affidavits were then read. N. Josephine Sturges, wife; Roger B. Sturges, son, aged 16, and Margery Sturges, daughter, aged 20, of Sturges' family, testified in the affidavits that they were in the breakfast room when Sturges and Detective M. A. Smith had their talk in the living room, that Sturges did not say anything to the effect he had to take out life insurance with Duggan in order to do business with "these people" and that he made no suggestion that could be construed in that way.

Sturges: "I am sorry to have to drag my family into this matter. It is the first time in my life that I have been attacked in this manner. The plans I have completed show care, work and brains. Since about January 1 I have put most of the time of my office upon these plans. Things have been up and down about the bonds, and when the outcome was in doubt I worked on the plans just the same. The sketches are ready for the inspection of heads of department. Prof. Eggen was in the other day to look over the science department plans."

Zimmerman: "I can't quite understand how you could recommend to us a man as such a good foreman and then turn around and tell us he was irresponsible."

Sturges: "I was mad when I talked here Friday evening. You will all agree that I was mad. My nervous system was worn out with work."

Duggan: "That is a separate matter."

Sturges: "My habit is to always boost. Our relations were friendly when I recommended him. I was going to talk to him, and advise him, and come down occasionally to protect the board. My hobby is to get the best high school building in Southern California for Santa Ana."

Mrs. Norman: "Mr. Head, how do

Insurance Matter

Head: "I will tell you what he said. He came into the office and in a joking kind of a way he said he guessed he'd better take out some insurance from Mr. Duggan. I can put no interpretation on that remark."

Sturges said that he had just finished a house and owed $3000 on it, so he thought he would take out life insurance to cover that in case he should die.

Anderson: "What date did you talk insurance first?"

Sturges: "About —"

Duggan: "I can answer that better. It was about July 13 when the policy was written, and Mr. Sturges had his physical examination several days later. It was probably in February that the matter was first mentioned between us. He had $2000 insurance, and he needed more to protect his family. I very carefully refrained from talking insurance to him until after the appointment."

Mrs. Smart: "You said Mr. Sturges asked you for the insurance?"

Duggan: "He did."

Sturges: "He said he could carry me until I got my house finished in case I had no friends in the business."

Mrs. Norman: "Did you approach Mr. Duggan on the subject?"

Sturges: "We were talking in a general business way when the matter came up. I really don't know what Mr. Duggan's business was until some time after I was employed by this board."

Zimmerman: "These young men told us plainly at the last meeting that they could answer only what questions they wanted to answer."

Sturges: "They are gentlemen—home boys, and were scared when summoned here, and they followed the advice of the father of one of the boys."

Mrs. Smart: "I asked them if Mr. Kennedy was honest, and they said he was."

Sturges: "Yes, I think he is honest."

Mrs. Smart: "A week ago you told us he was a rascal."

Sturges: "No, I said he was a traitor. I don't say a rascal. I meant in a financial way."

Mrs. Smart: "I would hardly call a traitor an honest man."

Thomas said he never heard Sturges say he had better take out life insurance. All he heard was that Sturges had taken out insurance.

Anderson began a review of the evidence as he understood it, and for half or three-quarters of an hour he was interrupted for corrections. Duggan brought out a point to show that Kennedy was not urged on the board by Sturges, but that some members of the board wanted Kennedy and it was after that that Sturges recommended him.

Over Advisory Board

Anderson said he did not think it best to go outside of Santa Ana for a superintendent.

"Has there been sufficient evidence to cause you to ask Sturges to resign?" he asked. "This investigation by a detective as to life insurance seems to have been started to find out if Mr. Duggan wrote a policy for Mr. Sturges."

Dean: "You are mistaken. This detective was sent out by me because I had heard that Mr. Sturges said he took out life insurance in order to do business with 'these people.' I wanted to see if he would say that to a stranger. That detective went there knowing nothing of what might be said. He did not even know Mr. Duggan's name."

Mrs. Norman: "I object to Mr. Anderson's criticism of the board in asking Mr. Sturges to resign. This board has to take the brunt of the criticism of the people. We are responsible to the people, and the advisory committee is responsible to no one."

Duggan said Anderson had a right as a citizen to criticize.

Anderson: "I haven't the slightest desire to take part in these meetings. I never asked to be put on the advisory committee. I fought for the high school site I thought was best, and that is hurting me now in my campaign, but I said today that my candidacy could go to Sam Hill before I would let it interfere with my duties on this committee. I did not know this meeting was to be held until I saw it in the paper. I asked Mr. Zimmerman if we were supposed to be here, and later he telephoned me to come."

Zimmerman: "At the invitation of the president of the board."

Mrs. Norman: "I do not object to the advice of the advisory committee, but I do object to its members voting on any matter before this board, and I object to Mr. Anderson criticizing us in this manner."

Duggan: "Mr. Anderson you have a perfect right to criticize. Go ahead."

Zimmerman: "The school board does not get all the brunt of public opinion."

IS AWAKENED BY BURGLAR FLASH

Mrs. Winbigler Screamed When She Faced Light, and the Intruder Ran

WENT OUT OF DOOR IN A BIG HURRY

Thief Got Butter, Cantaloupes and Oranges From Reynolds Back Porch

The flashlight of a burglar awakened Mrs. Theo. A. Winbigler this morning. Mrs. Winbigler screamed, and the burglar ran for the door, and escaped.

The attempt at burglary was committed this morning about 3 o'clock at the Winbigler residence at 267 East Ninth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Winbigler's bed-room is east of the dining-room, with an open door between the two rooms. The burglar entered the west door of the house, which was not locked, and stepped directly into the dining-room. He had made his way across the room, and was evidently getting his bearings when he flashed his electric light into the bedroom. He was standing in the door and was playing his light upon the bed six feet away when Mrs. Winbigler awakened. She saw the flash of the electric light, and instantly she sat up in bed and screamed. The scream awakened Winbigler and put the intruder to flight. He was seen flashing his lights across the room and in an instant he was outside the door, and slammed the screen door behind him. Winbigler had jumped from bed, ran into the dining-room and pushed the electric button that flooded the room with light. Winbigler ran to the side door, but could not find out what direction the man ran. Immediately, Winbigler telephoned for the police, and officers Lacey and Ryan responded quickly. They searched the vicinity, but could find no trace of the man. Dusty tracks on the carpet showed that the man had walked straight from the west door on entering to the door into the bedroom. Neither of the occupants of the bedroom got any kind of a look at the man, and cannot tell whether he was old or young, large or small. Nothing was taken from any part of the house.

Screen Porch Visited

Some time last night the rear screen porch of the residence of Dr. F. R. Reynolds at 720 North Bush was visited by a thief, and a pound of butter, three cantaloupes and several oranges were stolen from the refrigerator. At what time of night the visitor paid his call is not known. Nothing was known of it until this morning when Mrs. Reynolds went to the refrigerator to get some butter, and found the butter, cantaloupes and oranges missing. There was nothing to show that any attempt was made to enter any other part of the house than the screen porch.

WANTS AMERICA TO ADJURE TERRITORIAL EXPANSION

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The Pall Mall Gazette, aroused by the American Senate's re-affirmation of the Monroe doctrine, says today:

CONDEMNED, MAY NOT HANG

Bombela Not Likely to be Executed to October 17, the Day Judge Set

Manuel Bombela has a fair chance to save his neck. At least, it is quite certain that he will not be hanged Oct. 17, the day set by Judge West for the man's execution at San Quentin.

Bombela's chances lie in the fact that it is understood that there will be no more hangings in California until after the people have a chance to vote in November upon an initiative petition designed to do away with capital punishment.

Bombela was sent from this county to San Quentin on Tuesday of this week, under sentence of death.

for murdering his brother-in-law, Apollonio Valles.

A San Francisco dispatch says: Representatives of the Anti-Capital Punishment League, with headquarters in this city, said today that Gov. Johnson had declared that if the petitions now in circulation, to initiate a law for the abolishment of capital punishment received the necessary 30,000 signatures, he would allow no more hangings to take place until after the decision of the matter in the November election.

Gov. Johnson has, within the last month, reprieved six condemned murderers, two of whom had been reprieved several times before. While none of these reprieves extends beyond September 20, representatives of the league say that future hangings will depend entirely upon the election, and they have reason to believe further reprieves will be granted.

CALIFORNIA STONE FOR U. S. BUILDING

Riverside's New $50,000 Postoffice Will Use Mostly American Materials

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 3.—California granite will enter largely into the construction of the new $50,000 postoffice building to be erected here. Two carloads are to arrive in about ten days. Negotiations for a large quantity of marble are also being made. Some of it is expected to be Grecian, but an attempt is being made to place the bulk of the order with American quarries. Inspector Mullin of the postoffice department said yesterday that the postoffice when completed would accommodate a population of 70,000 people. G. H. Atkinson, president of the Los Angeles firm, was also here yesterday, inspecting the work on the footings.

GETS LETTER FROM ORIENT

Edgar H. Munson Describes His Y. M. C. A. Work Among Students in China

C. R. Munson of North Main street has received another interesting letter from his son, Edgar H. Munson, who is student secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in China. The letter says:

Pekin, June 30, '12.
My Dear Father: Your good letter of May 10 finally reached me here in Pekin about the 18th of June. I was mighty glad to hear from you and to know that you have met people who know me. It somehow seems to make the U. S. a little nearer when I hear of friends from here meeting you or some of my friends in the homeland.

Yes, I have met Mrs. Brewster, but don't know her as well as Mr. Brewster. Just two months ago, I was in their home in Hinghwo probably about the time she was in Santa Ana. They are doing a great work and I consider her husband a real missionary statesman, one of the strongest I have met anywhere in China.

I was especially glad that you met and heard Mr. Arthur Rugh speak in the Y. M. C. A. You will see his name on this letterhead. Now I am doing the work which he did when in China—as national student secretary for ALL China. If his wife's health improves so he can get back, we will be working side by side—our offices together—for the great student population of China. He is a dear friend of mine, and I think a great deal of him. He is known and admired by the students I over this great land.

For the past two weeks I have been here in North China in this ancient capital of the Chinese Empire—one of the most interesting cities in the whole world. Early this week our student summer conference for North China closed. It was a wonderful gathering, one in which many fine young Chinese men received new ideals of the meaning of life and the visions of opportunities for service in this new republic. Oh, it is such a glorious privilege which God has given me to have a small part in moulding the lines of the students of what will soon be one of the world's greatest nations.

Since the conference closed, three or four of us national and local secretaries have been conferring together for two or three days on many phases of our work in China. I have also spent two days in Roy Woodward's home near Pekin. You remember he was one of my room mates at Dr. Somers' house in Grinnell. I believe you met him. He is now married and teaches in one of the Government schools at Pootungfu. He married a Grinnell graduate and they have a very happy home. It was a pleasant visit.

Yesterday and today I have seen the two greatest pieces of Oriental architecture in China and also the most famous places in the whole continent of Asia. The first was the Imperial Summer Palace where the old Empress Dowager who died four years ago, used to go for her summers. It is about eight miles from Pekin, and comprises hundreds of acres of wooded hills, lakes, castles, and palaces. Millions of dollars have been spent on it—all for the use of China's one ruler. One feels the selfishness of it all when on every hand are to be seen China's millions who are next door to starvation.

This morning I went to the famous "Temple of Heaven" where the Emperors of China have worshipped for 600 years. It is the most glorious and magnificent structure of its kind in all China. The large three-tier altar is over 250 feet in diameter—all carved from beautiful white marble. The interior of the temple has a dome about 100 feet high—carvings and paintings therein not even equalled in our own national capital at Washington D. C. The whole roof is covered with a beautiful dark blue tile. To this temple the Emperor would go three times a year with a large retinue of followers to worship. In the midst of all the Chinese superstitions and confucianism we believe that in the worship at this temple the Chinese have come closer to our God than in any other part of their so-called religious life and worship. The whole temple, altar and surrounding parks are enclosed by a large wall 3 1/2 miles around.

It is interesting to go around this big capital of China for it is so full of historic interest. There have been many marks of the Boxer uprising of 1900. I trust the time may come when you may take a trip to the Orient and see this eastern metropolis.

Day after tomorrow I go south to Central China, stopping near Hankow at a student conference of the Yangtze Valley. Then next week to Shanghai, and to Hanchow to another student conference. Twenty years ago it took 36 days to make the trip from Pekin to Hankow; now I will make it in 36 hours on an electric lighted through sleeping car.

After another month I hope to get back to Peking, a North China summer resort for a few weeks' rest and vacation. Always address me at 120 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Beautiful Huntington Beach

A Justly Popular Beach Resort---A Charming Spot for a summer or winter home---A thriving agricultural center

HUNTINGTON BEACH is a combination of almost everything desirable for the home-seeker, sojourner, investor and those on pleasure bent. Its climate is perfect at all seasons of the year; its social and moral conditions are unexcelled; its beauty of location, with superb mountain and marine views, is the delight of all who behold. Besides being a popular beach resort, with fine surf bathing and fishing, modern pleasure pavilion, pier and bathhouse, a superb beach and slightly ocean front bluffs, Huntington Beach is a commercial and industrial center. It has a "back-country" of thousands of acres of the richest and most beautiful agricultural lands—peatlands for celery, sugar beet lands, bean lands and lands suitable for all kinds of crops. On the outskirts of the city are located a great sugar factory, tile factory, barley-crushing and bean-cleaning plants. The city has over 1500 inhabitants and is growing rapidly. Splendid schools and churches are there, broad paved streets, fine business blocks, beautiful homes. Railroad facilities include the Southern Pacific steam road and the Pacific Electric trolley lines, one running in from Santa Ana, the county seat of Orange county, and the other from Los Angeles, extending on to Balboa. Arrangements have been made by which Huntington Beach will in future have a 45 minute car service to Los Angeles the year round with three flyers daily to Zafra, the junction for Long Beach. Huntington Beach has been chosen year after year as the place of meeting for the Southern California Veterans' Association, Aug. 13-23; Socialists encampment July 1-7; Methodist camp meeting July 21-August 4.

One of the most popular attractions of Huntington Beach is its "Tent City," located only three blocks from the ocean, convenient to car lines. The grounds are attractively laid out and planted with trees and shrubbery.

Huntington Beach homes are surrounded by beautiful lawns and gardens, the rich character of the soil and the abundant supply of pure water making it easy to grow anything.

For Sale—40 acres good rich sandy-sediment loam, all under cultivation. Four room California house, 7-inch artesian well, 8 h. p. pumping plant and plenty of shade trees. Price $250 per acre. Half cash, balance easy at 7 per cent.

Those wishing to make sure and safe investments in the famous peatlands locality make no mistake in letting us show what we have to offer. We are willing to put our time against yours—let us give you an auto ride through our rich country. Make an appointment by phone. Both phones 33.

LONG BEACH PLANS BIG EXPENDITURE TO PURCHASE LAND

LONG BEACH, Aug. 3.—At a meeting of the Committee of One Hundred, formed some time ago to investigate into the advisability of bonding the city for $2,400,000 for the purpose of purchasing a tract of land surrounding the inner harbor, building additional municipal docks, constructing an adequate sewage system and other improvements, met last night and recommended to the city council that the city invest the sum of not to exceed $1,150,000.

Under the recommendation of the committee, the sum of $50,000 would be devoted to the building of a pier at Devil's Gate; $250,000 for sewer improvements; $300,000 for municipal pier connecting Pine and American avenues; $350,000 for the acquisition of land surrounding the harbor; and $100,000 for the construction of a new city hall.

criticism. Now, the bonds were carried with the expectation that we would help look after the business. It is hard work, and I would be glad to quit if you will get someone to take my place. If you had listened more to us, you would have been better off. I could have given you some suggestions about the architect matter, but you took that matter into your own hands. Either we ought to be considered here by right, or we ought to quit. I'd rather be at home with my family than here in this scrap."

Duggan: "We could not have passed the bonds without the advisory committee. It was a contract with the people that these men would help us in this matter."

Mrs. Smart: "Who made that contract?"

Duggan: "This board."

Zimmerman: "It was published in the papers. My understanding was that the ten of us should vote, and then the school board should vote separately and ratify the vote of the ten."

Mrs. Norman: "There was never a time when I understood that the committee was to vote with us. It was only to advise and assist. The committee voted on the selection of the tract and on whether or not we should submit the sites to the people."

Duggan: "As far as the site was concerned, three members of this board wanted that site."

Zimmerman: "The advisory committee has done a good deal. I got options on land in the north part of town, and caused the people in the south part of town to raise money to reduce the cost of the site."

Mrs. Smart: "Was that the reason you got the options?"

Duggan: "It makes no difference why he got them, that was the result. It saved several thousand dollars."

Zimmerman: "Further defending myself as a member of the committee, I say I told you those plans could be drawn for two and a half per cent. The buildings are in a group. Sturges said he could cut the price, but at my suggestion he threw in the plans of the grammar school free."

Mrs. Smart: "We might have done that ourselves."

Zimmerman: "I stopped a vote being taken in order to make the suggestion."

The president asked Anderson to go on with his advice. Anderson said that if he had been a member of the board, and the information came about a life insurance incident, for instance, he would have taken it up with the whole board unless he wanted to strike at Duggan. He said he did not credit the detective's evidence, and Kennedy had a motive.

Mrs. Smart: "Mr. Duggan told me this morning that he had written a letter to Mr. Sturges and asked him to resign because the evidence was against him."

Duggan: "At that time, I had had a conversation with Attorney Williams, and he thought the evidence of the boys was strong, but those boys have come in here tonight and straightened that matter up."

Mrs. Norman and Mrs. Smart said they did not think they had "straightened it up very much."

Attorney Williams said he could not help being impressed with the young men's story Friday evening, that their story then was probably the most reliable.

"I do not intend to discuss the facts, however," said he, "but the law only. If you break with Sturges at this time he cannot recover a dollar from you or this school district. The law is mandatory that there be bids for plans and specifications. That law has been passed on in the last three months, and it holds good. You did not call for bids. The proper legal thing to do is to set aside this pretended employment, and call for bids. I think anyone could successfully prevent the payment to Sturges. I know the law is that you should call for bids. Even if you want to keep Sturges, you had better do it, and let him put in his bid and plans." City Attorney Heathman agreed with Williams fully.

In the course of the talk, Dean stated that in sending out the detective, he had no intention of "looking after Mr. Duggan."

"Somebody has been looking after me," said Duggan, and a letter was read from the Los Angeles office of the New York Life Insurance Company stating that two detectives had been there inquiring for a list of names of those insured by Duggan. The letter stated that in nineteen years of service the company knew of no wrong act by Duggan. It said an agent must use his acquaintances to get business, and the writer hoped Duggan would solicit friends, architects and members of the school board for insurance.

Duggan: "There have been private detectives on my trail. I am not afraid. They will not find anything damaging."

Anderson: "Aside from the legal aspect, this is a question of right and wrong. You have encouraged Sturges in drawing these plans. Mr. Duggan certainly was justified in writing that policy. Why, I did legal work for men employed by the school board when I was on it, and there was absolutely nothing wrong in it. Mr. Duggan was not indiscreet. He was right in getting that business if he could, for nothing was said about it before Sturges was employed. Don't fire Sturges just because you have a legal right to do it."

Zimmerman: "Duggan was all right in that, no question about it. It was hard to make people feel right in regard to Sturges. I lost faith in him when he condemned a man he had tried to have us take as superintendent. I think it would be best to pay Sturges, and close the matter."

Duggan: "I don't believe Sturges ever said one word against any member of this board. I am sure he acted in perfect good faith."

Zimmerman said that if he was on a jury he would feel justified in giving the story of the young men as first told considerable weight, and he felt that Sturges had "used this board as a goat to get rid of Kennedy."

As to Sturges' ability, several expressed full satisfaction.

Duggan: "There was no more reason for people to say that I ought not to have accepted this business than that Mr. Duggan should refuse to let school teachers trade at his store, or Mr. Dean his store. There is no good evidence against Sturges. We liked his high school at Long Beach, and considered we would get more for the money from him."

Mrs. Norman: "I had a clipping from a Long Beach paper, putting him in a different light. It said it was hoped Sturges would sue for his money for a payment on the gymnasium. However, I think he is a good architect, but I don't believe his employment would be agreeable or sanctioned by the people."

Anderson: "For the sake of the schools and one of our best citizens, I think you four members of the school board ought to pass a resolution tonight stating that you have full confidence in Mr. Duggan and give no credence to the insinuations against him. If you go back on Sturges now you will lose the $750 that it will cost you to pay for the grammar school plans, otherwise free."

City Attorney Heathman said he had no faith in the Blair detectives, that the only person who had a right to a grievance against Sturges was Duggan. But under the law, the board has no contract with Sturges, and he advised that the law be followed and bids called for, and if Sturges comes in with plans the board can accept them if it wants to.

Superintendent Cranston said that Sturges could not complete his plans for the Poly high before October 1.

Dean: "Sturges says he has been working on the plans right along. He told me on one or two occasions they had been laid aside for a month or two."

Zimmerman: "Let him complete his plans, and we put on our own superintendent. In that way we would be sure to get a square deal."

Duggan: "That's right."

Cranston: "Both attorneys have given the legal point of view, and Los Angeles does it in that way."

Cain said he did not think it well to continue as at present.

The board was about to adjourn when Zimmerman and Anderson called attention to Anderson's suggestion of a resolution of confidence in Duggan. The advisability of calling for bids for plans at that meeting came up at the same time.

"I think we had better think the matter over," Mrs. Smart moved to adjourn to next Tuesday evening, and the motion carried.

Anderson: "I want you to decide what you are going to do with the advisory committee. I certainly will not come back here next meeting unless you pass a resolution asking the committee to come."

Zimmerman: "I feel the same way about it."

Cain: "I, for one, will be glad to have you here."

Mrs. Norman: "I did not object to advice and assistance, but I do object to your voting on anything for which this board alone is responsible to the people, and I object to criticism on some things that I do not believe it is up to the advisory committee to criticize."

Anderson: "I have a perfect right to criticize, and if I come at all, I should come with the intention of being perfectly frank."

And the meeting broke up with no understanding on the matter.

Insurance Rates

Mrs. Smart and Superintendent Cranston were appointed as a committee to report on various rates for fire insurance.

To Buy the Lot

President Duggan reported that T. J. Lewis would not take less than $1500 for a 59.2 by 125 foot lot north of the Central grammar school. By unanimous vote it was decided to buy the lot at that price. The ground will be added to the Central school grounds, making more room for play.

At Original Figure

The board finally authorized a contract with A. C. Black for building the new grammar school on South Broadway, at $21,499. That was Black's original bid, to which the board allowed $500 to be added because of a mistake in calculations.

Mrs. Norman at the last meeting moved to rescind the addition of $500 because the act was illegal. The question of legality came up last night, when Attorney Williams stated he thought the raise illegal. He said Black would be taking the chance of someone enjoining payment.

City Attorney Heathman: "I cannot find anything illegal with your action in raising this bid $500. There was no fraud, and in that case the courts will not interfere. This matter of being afraid of a lawsuit—why, if this community finds you are afraid of lawsuits they will be riding your backs all the time. Why, if anyone wants to give you a lawsuit, meet him half way and give him a lawsuit."

Black stated that his attorney took the view held by Heathman, but Black said he did not fancy a lawsuit, and he would risk one, which would cost him possibly more than $500, if he proceeded at $21,999. For that reason he would sign a contract at $21,499.

Mrs. Norman's motion to rescind the awarding of a contract at $21,599 passed, and a motion to award the contract at the original bid of $21,499 was carried.

They Want Steam

A week ago bids were opened for furnishing a hot air heating and ventilating plant for the new grammar school. Last night a Los Angeles firm put in an offer on a steam blast plant. Superintendent Cranston reported that he and Director Cain went to Los Angeles, and found the schools favored steam plants, and that Superintendent Francis said the automatic adjustment system was well worth the extra cost.

On the advice of the attorneys, the board rescinded all bids received, and ordered that bids be advertised for a steam blast heating and ventilating plant.

Camp Meeting at Huntington

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 3.—

The final and most important meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, held during the present Methodist camp meeting, was that of yesterday morning when three California girls gave up their lives to missionary work. They are Miss Gertrude Isham of Los Angeles, who goes to Bangalore, India; Miss Grace Barstow of Berkeley, who goes to South America, and Miss Jean Lewis of Pomona, who goes to Foo Chow, China. The 3-year-old son of Pastor Kent of Monrovia—little John Russell Kent—was dedicated to foreign missionary work and will be educated and trained with that purpose in view.

The day's program included strong talks by Mrs. S. F. Johnson of Pasadena, Mrs. Belle Anderson of Los Angeles, Miss Jean Loomis of Pasadena, who leaves for China as a missionary in September; Mrs. C. E. Brown of Los Angeles and Miss Diana McNeil, a colored girl born in Africa and who came to the University of Southern California at Los Angeles to be educated, and will work among her own people for Christ, leaving in two weeks.

It was announced that the Pacific branch of the society will meet at San Jose on October 1. Mrs. C. E. Brown of Los Angeles is vice president of the society and Mrs. Lucy Harris of Pasadena is secretary.

CANADA'S STRINGS TO WARSHIP GIFTS

Minister Borden of Dominion Says Canada Must Know How Money is Spent

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Robert L. Borden, Canadian Prime Minister, who has invited British Cabinet Ministers to visit the Dominion, has made his position very clear on the subject of the naval assistance Canada is to offer the mother country.

Canada, he told the British Cabinet, is prepared to assist Great Britain to maintain her naval supremacy, but when she does so, she will want to be consulted as to the way the money is spent.

Mr. Borden is reticent as to what Canada will do, but is outspoken enough as to what she wants in return for any contributions she makes. One of these desires is for a real imperial parliament, representative of the whole empire, to deal with matters of interest to the empire.

Upon the arrival of Mr. Borden and his colleagues, comprising J. Douglas Hazen, Canadian Minister of Marine; C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice; L. H. Pelletier, Postmaster-General, and George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, it was announced that they come with an offer to contribute a squadron of four dreadnaughts to England.

MRS. McGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts In Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good. One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more."

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.

EVANS FOR CONGRESS

The endorsement of the congressional candidacy of the Hon. S. C. Evans of Riverside by the Orange County Progressive Republican League is not only in line with the action of other county organizations throughout the district, and in harmony with progressive sentiment generally, whether expressed in the form of organized action, individual statement or editorial utterance, but it is also a highly deserved commendation of Mr. Evans as man and candidate and Progressive.

Mr. Evans is not merely a Riverside candidate for congress. He is the Eleventh District candidate. His candidacy is not narrowly local. Knowledge of his capabilities and his sterling qualities is not confined to his home city, where, of course, his life is known most intimately. But to the farthest confines of the district Mr. Evans is known as man, as citizen and as public official, and is highly respected and esteemed.

It is proper that great emphasis should be laid upon the monumental service Mr. Evans could and would render Orange county in particular, as a member of congress, by working assiduously for recognition of its harbor by the federal government and for a liberal federal appropriation for its improvement. It is also proper to bear in mind and lay stress upon his peculiar fitness to represent the great orange and lemon growing section embraced in San Bernardino, Riverside, Orange and San Diego counties. But Mr. Evans' sphere of special usefulness and the scope of his deep interest in the people's welfare are not limited by the boundaries of any town or county. He knows the Eleventh district as thoroughly as the close student knows his lesson. He will work to conserve the local interests of all parts of the district. He will look after the safeguarding of the interests of San Diego's splendid harbor with the same conscientious assiduity with which he will press the claims of the orchardists for protection on their fruits.

Mr. Evans is not a one-idea, one-interest man in public life, or in private life, either, for that matter. He has successfully fostered various interests both in public and private endeavor, and has demonstrated his versatility and breadth of vision. He knows the fruit business with particularity, from long and careful experience and observation. He understands its needs, perhaps, as well as any man in this section. He can grasp the minutiae of the whole question of maintaining adequate legislative bulwarks for insuring the future prosperity of the orchard interests of this section. In a word, there is no honest and honorable interest from one end of the district to the other which may or should be affected by national legislation that Mr. Evans will not safeguard and promote effectually, should he be sent to Washington.

The next House undoubtedly will be overwhelmingly progressive, made up of adherents of Woodrow Wilson's ticket and Colonel Roosevelt's ticket. These elements undoubtedly will work in harmony in all general legislation. Therefore, Mr. Evans, elected as an outspoken Progressive, would stand a much better show than his opponent to land important and influential committee positions, and thus become immediately efficient in the public service.

FOR RETAIL MERCHANTS

Continuous advertising in reliable newspapers is given as the key to success for retail merchants by J. E. Chasoff, instructor in advertising in the school of journalism at the University of Missouri, in a bulletin just issued.

"The merchant opens his store fifty two weeks in the year," says Mr. Chasoff. "He hires his clerks for six days in the week. His window display is before the passing public every business day. And yet when it comes to printed publicity his whole attitude changes and HE FAILS TO UNDERSTAND THAT ADVERTISING IS ESSENTIALLY THE SAME, ONLY THAT ITS POSSIBILITIES TO BRING BUSINESS ARE GREATER THAN ANY OF THESE."

"When business is bad, they quit advertising. Someone has said that is what keeps business bad. The dull season mania is practically unnecessary three-fourths of the time. Very often it is due to this cessation of advertising. The spirit of the store is the store."

"Merchants have been known to do the largest volume of business in July and August by starting a campaign for business.

THE FINAL TEST

The Register has little patience with the long-drawn-out and intricate arguments of Progressive papers in defense of the Progressive position, that California Republicans have a right to vote for Roosevelt presidential electors. They have a perfect right, so far as mere right goes, arbitrarily to place only Roosevelt electors on the ticket for the November election. Their course in submitting the matter once more to the voters at the September primaries is one of pure magnanimity.

The fundamental fact of the whole matter is that California Republicanism is overwhelmingly Progressive. This fact has been demonstrated not once or twice or thrice, but four times, and with increasing emphasis each time.

The first test came in the Republican primary of 1910. Then Hiram W. Johnson, pledging himself to free the Republican party and the state government from railroad domination, won the gubernatorial nomination by a plurality of 46,000 over his strongest reactionary opponent and 63,000 over the candidate endorsed by the railroad machine.

The second test came in the general election of that year. Johnson was elected Governor by 22,000 plurality over Theodore A. Bell, candidate of the Democratic party combined with all the special-interest Republicans of California, who are now denouncing Theodore Roosevelt and lauding William H. Taft.

The third test came last October in the special election on constitutional amendments. Special interests and reactionary newspapers centered their opposition on the recall of the judiciary. That measure carried overwhelmingly, receiving a majority of 124,000. And to emphasize their progressiveness California's voters gave the initiative and referendum a majority of 116,000.

The fourth test came in the presidential primary last May. Theodore Roosevelt, the recognized national leader of the Progressive Republican movement, was opposed in this state not only by President Taft, the recognized leader of the reactionaries, but also by Senator Robert M. La Follette, a Progressive who refused to make way for the people's choice. This divided the Progressive strength, yet despite the fact that La Follette polled 45,000 votes, Roosevelt rolled up a total of 138,000 and beat President Taft nearly 70,000.

And now the fifth test is on, but this time Theodore Roosevelt and President Taft are to fight it out, with no third candidate to split the progressive vote. As goes the fight in the Republican primary for legislative nominations, so goes the electoral vote of California. In every legislative district one candidate is pledged to vote for the nomination of Republican electors pledged to Theodore Roosevelt. If a majority of the legislative nominees are for Roosevelt the verdict will be for the Progressives; if a majority favors Taft the result will be a reactionary victory. The test is not direct, but the issue is plain.

Are you a Progressive or a reactionary? If a Progressive it is your duty to vote for the recognized Roosevelt candidates for the legislature—John N. Anderson for the senate and Hans V. Weisel for the assembly. The result of the test is certain. A state that has answered "Yes" four times is not going to say "No" now, but it is advisable that every Progressive vote be cast for the candidates pledged to Roosevelt in order to make the answer so emphatic that the reactionaries will be convinced that California belongs to the people and cannot be cajoled or lured back to the political slavery that means bosses and bondage.

ATTORNEY DARROW'S PLIGHT

FROM THE MINERS' MAGAZINE

The following editorial comment from the Garment Workers' official organ is worthy of publication; also comment:

"The trial of Clarence S. Darrow for alleged attempts to bribe jurymen in the McNamara cases is now on in Los Angeles. As one of the great attorneys of this country who have ably defended organized labor and its leaders in trying situations his case will be watched with great interest by trades unionists and their friends in the hope that he may be fully vindicated from the accusation. It is hardly conceivable that a man of his character and intelligence would resort to the method with which he is charged to win a case. In his defense he is confronted mainly by a detective who, it is charged, was paid detective in the employ of the prosecuting attorney, while employed by the McNamara defense. If this is the case, it will invalidate his testimony. Attorney Darrow has expressed absolute confidence that he will be acquitted. Clarence Darrow has fought many a good fight for labor unions, and the working class ought not to forget him now that he himself is in need of friends. If he needs financial assistance, it should be freely given; and it is hoped that the labor papers of this country will do all possible service in his behalf, that he may have a fair trial and a just verdict. He is confronted with implacable enemies, and his friends must rally to his support, that the labor haters of California may not flatter themselves that Darrow has been deserted by his former friends in the labor movement."

The writer does not agree with the editor of the official organ of the Garment Workers' organization when he says the labor papers and the members of organized labor should contribute a fund for the defense of Mr. Darrow. Neither do we share his opinion that Darrow has always been a friend of organized labor. Whatever he did he charged saucily for it, and labor paid the price. He never turned a hand in the defense of labor unless he first had an understanding concerning the price he was to receive and it generally reached the highest point. When he appeared before the Anthracite Coal Commission for the miners who had been on strike for six months and then went back to work pending the result of the commission's deliberations, he put the tariff on, and yet there were officers in the Miners' Union who knew that Darrow bungled things and bungled them badly. The bill he charged for the work he did in the Moyer-Haywood-

Pettibone trial was enormous. When he was engaged to defend the McNamaras at first he said he did not want to engage in the trial because it would be a long one. Then he consented and decided to live in Los Angeles. He charged an enormous sum of money for his services in this, and had the case gone to the jury, would have charged one thousand dollars for every day he spent in court. Clarence figured the matter out all right for Clarence. He knew the McNamaras were guilty months before they confessed and yet foxy Clarence permitted the thousands in this country to believe in their innocence after they confessed to him that they were guilty. Why did Clarence do so? Was it to uphold the dignity of labor, or to get sufficient money in the fund, over which he exercised supreme power, in order that Clarence in the future would not need to care which way the wind blew? It is possible to pull the wool over the eyes of the laboring people once in a while, but you can't do it all the time!

Darrow committed an unpardonable offense when he failed to disclose the truth to the millions of wage-earners in this country concerning the guilt of the McNamaras. Clarence knew how to play the game, however. He had charge of the fund that was created for the defense of the scoundrels who betrayed organized labor and joined with the wreckers of it in an effort to destroy it for all time. If a half-million dollars were raised Clarence would no doubt get the greater part of it for his work. When he learned that the McNamaras were guilty, and the money continued to pour in, he did not flash a message to those who believed in their innocence and who were contributing. No, foxy Darrow held the bag wide open and did not whimper. Now, some of his friends claim that we should contribute to a defense fund for him. There are very few wage earners in the country who share this opinion.

He knew that if he told the truth to the millions of wage-earners who believed the McNamaras innocent, not a cent would come from the burdened backs of labor. He knew then and he knows now that organized labor abhors brutality and injustice. Yet Clarence withheld the facts from people whom he wished would continue to send in their mite because he realized if the truth were made known he would have to go back to Illinois. Now that he is in trouble himself he cannot expect support from those whom he deceived by keeping the truth which he possessed from them.

NO DARROW TRIAL WAS HELD TODAY

Judge Hutton Desired Time To Decide as to Admitting Dictagraph Talks

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—There was no session of the Darrow trial today. Judge Hutton announced when court convened that he required time to consider the authorities as to the admissibility of dictagraph conversations between Clarence Darrow and John R. Harrington, a former employee of Darrow's. The dictagraph matter came up yesterday afternoon in the trial.

The Darrow jury was taken over the scene of the alleged bribery and the arrest of Bert H. Franklin this morning.

Judge Hutton convened a regular session of court in a saloon at Third and Los Angeles streets, then took the jury over the ground of the alleged bribery and the scene of the arrest of Detective Franklin, where Darrow appeared on the scene.

Darrow was almost mobbed by the curious throng anxious to catch a glimpse of the famous labor attorney.

The court announced, when reconvened in the Hall of Records, that he would give his decision as to the admissibility of the dictagraph evidence in Darrow's cross examination on Monday next.

During four months preceding July the daily average was over 100 and in June reached 100.

MRS. GRACE FREED FROM AWFUL CHARGE

Jury Found Her Not Guilty of Attempt to Kill Husband For $25,000 Insurance

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 3.—"God bless you, gentlemen," cried Mrs. Daisy Ulrich Opie Grace, at 4:40 yesterday afternoon when the jury found her not guilty of the charge of shooting her husband. There was a note of hysteria in Mrs. Grace's voice, and she seemed on the verge of a collapse, but her lawyers patted her on the shoulder and urged her to restrain herself and she soon became calm. Then the crowd in court cheered the verdict and surged about Mrs. Grace, many of the women weeping.

The verdict was generally expected. It is conceded that the state failed to sustain the charge that Mrs. Grace had drugged and shot her husband and locked him in to die in order to get the $25,000 insurance on his life.

Husband Bitter Over Verdict. NEWMAN, Ga., Aug. 3.—When told of the action of the jury in freeing his wife, Eugene Grace bitterly scored the action today. He said: "They might as well put dynamite under the courthouse. I cannot see how they can acquit her, for she is as guilty as hell."

Mrs. Grace was charged with shooting her husband in an attempt to murder him.

10 IN ONE FAMILY AT RIVERSIDE ARE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 3.—G. W. Hill of West Riverside, says that he can go Dr. Lee Griffin of Los Angeles one better, on the family voting proposition. Dr. Griffin, who was here Thursday, stated that he and eight members of his family would vote at the next primary. Hill says there are ten of his family who would vote if one of them is registered today. He is a pioneer, having come to California in 1859, and to Riverside in 1891. Registration clerks are working overtime at the clerk's office to get the voters signed up. The registration for the county will probably exceed 12,000. A greater percentage of the women in Riverside are registering than in the country precincts.

WANDERING LEPER WORRIES STATES

Leper Brownson Really Belongs to Texas, Came to California Now in Colorado

DENVER, Aug. 3.—C. W. Brownson, the leper who admits he escaped from California, is proving a white elephant here. At present he is confined in a tent at the pesthouse. "We do not want to keep him," said Health Commissioner J. M. Perkins today. "We have no way of taking care of him and we don't know how to send him back to San Francisco. We would have to have a special car and guard, and possibly have to obtain special permission to pass from every state and county through which the train ran."

Escaped From Hospital. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—C. W. Brownson, the leper held at Denver, escaped from the city leper hospital here May 3. According to officials of the board of health, he is a wanderer in many different cities, and rarely remains long at one place. His home is in Texas and several attempts have been made by health officials to have him sent to his native state.

PRESS CONCERNS UNDER INJUNCTION

"Boiler Plate" Firms Charged With Violating Sherman Law—Say They Will 'Be Good'

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Alleging violation of the Sherman law, United States District Attorney Wilkerson today asked Federal Judge Landis for an injunction against the "boiler plate newspaper trust."

The defendants are the Central West Publishing Company, the Western Newspaper Union, the American Press Association, and several individuals. Judge Landis granted a permanent injunction against the boiler plate firms mentioned in the complaint, the defendants agreeing to this procedure. While the boiler plate firms at first would not admit violations of the law, they promised not to violate it hereafter.

District Attorney Wilkerson's petition maintained that the boiler plate firms were monopolizing that business.

Apricot Workers at Large Camp Were Recipients of Cooling "Treat"

Among the gala features of the apricot pitting season are the "treats" that are usually given by the large growers, these events usually taking place towards the end of the season. One of the pleasantest of these was that given yesterday by Mrs. F. B. Elliott at the Maybury ranch, where a force of about twenty-five workers have been busy for the past two weeks. An immense spreading sycamore tree threw grateful shade for the merry-makers and assisted by some of the force, Mrs. Elliott dispensed cooling refreshments of ice cream and cake.

Today the employees themselves joined in a picnic spread in the self same shady spot, each one contributing delicacies to the feast. Merry jest and laughter gave evidence to the happiness of the occasion, which marked practically the close of the season at this camp.

HINDOO ADOPTS MELICAN WAYS AND RAISES CHECK

POMONA, Aug. 3.—A Hindoo laborer, working north of Claremont, has established a record for his race in a manner that is puzzling the police. This son of India received a check for $3 last Saturday for wages, and proceeded to raise it to $30 and cash it at the bank. Now the officers are looking for a tall, dark-skinned Hindoo; but any one of the some forty in the camp answer the description, and they are trying to find a new way to bring the man to justice.

CORPORATIONS YET PAY LICENSE TAX

Prefer to be Safe on Charter in Case Supreme Court Should

Give Adverse Rearing

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—In spite of the decision by the Supreme court in the Mulford case, Secretary of State Jordan has been doing remarkably well in the collection of corporation license taxes up to date. His report to the controller for the month of July, 1912, shows corporation license taxes collected during that month to the amount of $214,190, whereas during July, 1911, the amount of license tax collections was only $119,134.25.

These figures appear to indicate that whatever the ultimate effect of the Mulford decision may be on the future of the corporation license tax law, most of the corporations deem it to be the wisest thing to pay up their taxes this year, rather than to take the chances of going delinquent on the first of September and thereby entailing either the payment of penalties or a forfeiture of charter later on. The Supreme Court decision has not yet taken effect, and in the meantime the attorney general has filed a petition for rehearing, which the court has not yet passed on.

PLAN TO SEIZE GERMAN SHIP SAYS

Government to Recover For Alleged Importation of Chilean Laborers

Los Angeles Examiner: Armed with a process of seizure, Federal officers are awaiting at the harbor the arrival of the big Kosmos steamer Sals. The German ship was libeled as the result of the alleged importation by the 3500-ton German Kosmos steamer Osiris, in May, of twenty Chilean laborers under contract to unload the cargo. This is a violation of the immigration laws and the German steamship company is liable to a fine of $20,000, the law providing a penalty of $1000 for each man so imported.

The Kosmos liner is the first to touch here since the commission of the alleged offense by the Osiris, owned by the same company. The Osiris cleared before any action could be taken and the government took the first opportunity to recover from the company.

The process which will be served when the liner docks by Deputy United States Marshal Erwin Dingle and General Inspector Richard Taylor is directed simply against the ship. No charge is made against any of the officers.

The process in libel was issued as the result of depositions made before United States Commissioner Charles N. Williams, Captain Charles T. Connel, chief of the immigration service of this district, swore to the complaint against the Sals.

A suit in admiralty will follow the seizure charges. The captain will be required to put up a large bond before he will be permitted to leave port. It is charged that the Osiris took on the crew at Valparaiso April 14. The ship was due to pass quarantine yesterday, but will not dock until this morning.

PLAGUE RAT FOUND AT NEW ORLEANS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The Treasury Department has promptly met the situation created by the discovery of a plague rat in New Orleans a few days ago by ordering a crusade there against rodents. It has ordered that three experienced rat catchers at San Francisco be transferred to New Orleans, where they will set up a school of instruction to deal with the best methods of trapping, hunting and poisoning rats, as carried on with success around San Francisco. The Marine Hospital and public health service has waged a winning fight in California against the plague, and most of it was under the immediate supervision of Surgeon-General Blue, who now is directing the inauguration of a similar fight in New Orleans. The Crescent City is not believed to be in any immediate danger on account of finding one rat with plague fleas on it, but the Treasury Department is not disposed to take any chances with it and will endeavor to eradicate the rats in that locality immediately. Close watch will be kept to ascertain whether any more rats caught in New Orleans, carry plague infection.

FORMER RESIDENT OF ORANGE IS DEAD

The dispatches this morning tell of the death in Sacramento of William D. Nicholson of Berkeley. Mr. Nicholson was an engineer of the State Highway Commission. He was a son of the late Admiral J. W. Nicholson and was himself a graduate of the naval academy. For many years he was an engineering official of the Santa Fe Railroad. For a number of years about twelve or fifteen years ago Mr. Nicholson and his family lived at Orange. At that time Mr. Nicholson had charge of extensive railroad building for the Santa Fe.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The big market in fresh fruit has been very steady up to this time, much of the first crop having been poor on account of delayed rains and the second crop of local stock being far from right at this time. Practically all of the fruit is coming from the Imperial Valley or the Fresno district and this has served to keep prices well up. The total crop in Southern California is estimated at about 4000 tons, considerably less than the year previous when the crop was the largest in the history of the state. From 2½ to 3 cents a pound is offered for figs in the orchards at this time and growers state that about 60 per cent of the crop has already been contracted for. There is no great amount of carryover in the fig line and with a shortage of the fruit reported in the north, it is generally conceded that prices will probably go higher, probably up to 3½ cents, which price was paid by some of the packers in their contracts made last February. Fresh fruit of this kind at the present time is bringing up to 85 cents a single layer box.

For the third week quotations on staples in the line of eggs, butter and cheese have remained absolutely unchanged. The demand for eggs was light yesterday and the receipts totaled 25,000 pounds. The call for butter was fair and prices showed little inclination to move either up or down.

The price for cheese was principally for northern fresh full cream. The price was slightly weaker among jobbers on account of the fact that 11,570 pounds were reported in.

Outside arrivals of potatoes totaled 540 sacks. The price on apud continues weak and there is little outlook for higher figures until the local crop is well cleaned up, which will not be for more than another month. Onions are moving slowly and without change in prices. Receipts from outside yesterday were only 4 sacks. No beans were received.

The only marked change in vegetable quotations was the higher figure on sweet corn, due to the fact that the first crop is about all consumed. Fancy field is selling up to 50 cents a lug box. The call for all vegetables was fair.

Apples sold well and receipts of 261 boxes were reported from the north. The call for apples is on the increase and Bellefonte in really marketable quantities are expected this coming week. Other deciduous fruit held unchanged. The demand for lemons has been active in the last two days and limes have also had a better movement with the warmer weather.

Takekawa was cashier of the Japanese-American Bank of Los Angeles, which got into financial difficulties. Noyes represented Takekawa and other Japanese in a fight to enforce W. F. Hole to live up to a contract for the sale of sixty acres of land in La Habra Valley. Takekawa got judgment, and he court ordered that the transfer of and be made on the presentation of $3,186.45 to Hole. During the financial difficulties, the land was deeded to Noyes, $75,000 being the consideration named. Later this consideration was changed to "legal services." Later still a change was made whereby Noyes received a deed to a two-fifths interest in the land, and still more recently Noyes deeded his interest to his wife. When Takekawa had to raise money to offer Hole the payment on the judgment, money was borrowed from Haynes, and a trust deed given.

On December 29, 1911, Noyes surrendered his license to practice law. Takekawa asserts that Noyes can no longer represent him in the lawsuits, and cannot earn his fee, which was a two-fifths interest in the land. Therefore the deed to two-fifths was without consideration. The court is asked to decree that Noyes has no title to the land and that the deed to him of a two-fifths interest is null and void.

Kemp, Mitchell & Silberberg are Takekawa's attorneys.

Three Congressmen Urge Such Procedure—House Judiciary Will so Advise Taft

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Strongly urging that Federal Judge Hanford of Seattle be permitted to resign and that the impeachment charges against him be dropped, Congressman Graham of the House judiciary committee's sub-committee, today backed up the stand of conferees Congressmen McCoy and Higgins, when the three reported the result of their probe at Seattle.

Following Graham's declaration, the house judiciary committee voted to advise President Taft that it does not object to his accepting Judge Hanford's resignation. Unless the president refuses to recognize the recommendation this action closes the matter so far as the house is concerned.

TREASURY DEFICIT LESS AND OFFICIALS HAPPY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The deficit of the federal treasury at the end of the first month in the new fiscal year was $743,185. Treasury officials joyfully compared this figure with $16,093,440, the deficit for July, 1911. There were two factors during the month favorable to the government. Custom receipts exceeded expectations, being nearly $5,000,000 more than in the corresponding month last year. The congressional delay in passing the deficiency and supply bills decreased the expenses of the government nearly $8,000,000 compared with July a year ago.

DAVID STARR JORDAN

"What we need most," said Dr. Jordan, "is a national defense commission of statesmen and that we be governed by the recommendations of this commission."

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 2.—The city council has requested City Attorney Allison to look into the earnings of the Pacific Electric Company to ascertain if $53.42 is two per cent of the gross earnings of the company in this city for the year ending June 30. "TACOMA" RUSHED TO BLUE-
FIELDS, REVOLT CENTER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The Tacoma has been ordered rushed from Guantanamo to Bluefields, Nicaragua, which is the storm center of the previous revolution, and where American and British marines were landed.

The Annapolis, under Captain Terhune, is operating between Corinto and San Juan del Sur.

There is a suspicion among officials here that the new revolution is inspired by the old Zelaya party, who formerly operated chiefly at Bluefields, and endeavored to run in several filibusters with war supplies.

BEGINS—MEAT NOT TO GO UP

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 3.—A real egg war is on this week, which was precipitated Thursday when three of the leading dealers cut the price from 30 to 25 cents, as low as the price paid to the farmers.

Meat prices, which were announced to be higher in most parts of the United States, will not be raised here this summer, according to a local dealer. Much of the supply here comes direct from the ranchers, and the local market is partly independent of the packers.

PROPERTY DAMAGE
BUT NO VICTIMS

Nevada Cloudburst Loss to Electric Company at Blue-
stone Mine Was $15,000

RENO, Aug. 3.—With subsiding waters in Seven Troughs Canyon, following Thursday's cloudburst above the camp, which sent a wall of water ten feet high down over the same path so disastrously swept two weeks ago, the light of yesterday discloses the fact that the sum total of damages is to the roads and telegraph and telephone wires and poles.

As far as is now known, no lives were lost. Aside from badly gutted roads for ten miles this side of Seven Troughs, and all wires down, there is no property damage for the reason that all the property through the canyon down to and including Mammoth, was swept away by the previous deluge.

The loss to the substitution of the Truckee General Electric Company at the Bluestone mine at Mason, which was struck by lightning and totally burned, is $15,000. The station will be immediately rebuilt.

The damage to the territory in the vicinity of Tonopah Junction from the cloudburst is limited to the destruction of five miles of trackage of the Nevada and California railroad.

PEACE ARRIVES AHEAD OF STORK

Mrs. Jack Geraghty's Wealthy and Irate Mother is Eager
For Daughter's Comfort

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 3.—The dove of peace comes slightly in advance of the stork in the life of Mrs. "Jack" Geraghty. Mrs. Geraghty's mother, Mrs. Amos Tuck French, who was so roused to wrath when Julia French eloped with Geraghty on Aug. 9, 1911, is making all arrangements now for her daughter to have every attention she will need when the stork arrives.

Arrangement has been made at the Newport Hospital in the Vanderbilt ward for Mrs. Geraghty. Her own babyhood nurse, Miss Courtney, will be on hand to greet the stork. Miss Courtney was in attendance when Mrs. "Jack" herself was born. She guarded her during the baby days and until she was turned over to a governess.

Mrs. Geraghty loves her childhood nurse dearly. The neighbors along Everett street are vastly interested in the Geraghty household and every morning sooner or later Mrs. Geraghty's voice comes caroling through the summer air and the women say: "Isn't she happy? She's the happiest person in all Newport."
